

On-Demand Coaching

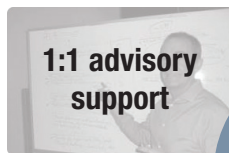

Getting the support you need for your business and addressing your personal development needs are critical to ongoing success, but many support programs are too prescriptive, or don't directly relate to the pressing issues you're facing on a daily basis.

Verus Partners On-Demand Coaching is different, a combination of 1:1 face-to-face and online advisory support plus action-orientated online training, combined with peer networking and online tools. Verus Partners On-Demand Coaching addresses your direct learning and development objectives.

1. Access the experience of a senior business advisor as a sounding board and problem solver both face to face and online.
2. Individual accountability and improved probability of strategy implementation success is achieved by embedding Mindshop Online into day-to-day learning practices.
3. Just-in-time learning when and where you need it, from a combination of online courses, videos and webinars.
4. A powerful online system to capture strategies and actions and keep you on track. All in one place, accessible from your PC or mobile phone.
5. Leverage 120+ tools and resources to help you deliver a cohesive approach to problem solving and strategy development back in your business.
6. Access to a network of hundreds of peers online to encourage sharing of ideas and best practices, and promote collaboration.
7. Powered by Mindshop leveraging 25 years of expertise and experience in online learning and development solutions, a regular source of new business innovation.
